JEFFERSON SQUARE EVENT Thursday, May 27 to Monday, May 31

To honor All Kentucky and Indiana Fallen Heroes. Flags4Vets Volunteers will start placing grave flags in Jefferson Square at 10 am on Thursday, May 27, and continue through Friday, until 10,000 flags have been placed. Flags remain for five days. These flags honor all Fallen Heroes from Kentucky, including Military, Law Enforcement, and Firefighters. Volunteers are needed to place flags and to provide security for all of the flags and equipment.

WATERFRONT EVENT Saturday, May 29 to Monday, May 31

To honor All of America's Living & Fallen Heroes. Volunteers will form the letters "USA" using 25,000 flags from Veterans' graves. When completed, the letters will each be 150 feet high and all three letters together will spread across one and a half football fields. These 25,000 flags honor all of America's Living & Fallen Heroes, from every State in the Union, including Military, Law Enforcement, and Firefighters. This event will culminate with a Memorial Day Observance presided over by His Honor, Mayor Abramson. Volunteers are needed to place flags and to provide security for flags and equipment.

Dear Adoptaflag.org:

I want to thank Adoptaflag.org for its dedication to providing U.S. grave decorating flags for every grave of every U.S. veteran buried in any national or military cemetery in the continental United States and those located in 11 foreign countries.

Mr. Fred Moore, the director of Adoptaflag.org, a non-profit organization, and members of the Adoptaflag.org staff are undertaking myriad initiatives to obtain support for this enormous endeavor dubbed "Flags For Vets."

The National Cemetery Administration salutes Adoptaflag.org in its efforts to launch "Flags For Vets" and greatly appreciates its support of and interest in our Nation's veterans.

We know of no other group that has ever been recognized by the National Cemetery Administration in this way.

Sincerely,

Steve L. Muro
Director
