

LIVING ART of Montana

Using the arts and nature to support healing since 1993

“The experience of the Living Art workshop was like finding a river inside that led me back to myself after the shock of my mastectomy.”

“The Living Art workshop made me realize I have more choices about how to face illness and heal and live with hope. I am not alone on this journey.”

Living Art Workshop Participants

Cancer, Courage & Creativity An eight-week workshop

When: March 4 - April 22, 2010
8 Thursdays, 5:30 - 7:30pm

Cost: No Charge
Donations appreciated

Who: For people who have or have had cancer, No art experience necessary

Where: Living Art Studio/Office
The Warehouse ~ 725 W. Alder, #17

Call to Register: 549-5329 by Thursday, March 4 ysteinprograms@livingartofmontana.org www.livingartofmontana.org