

FUND FOR IDAHO

Nelle Tobias Award for Philanthropy Nomination Process

The purpose of the Award is to honor extraordinary generosity and passionate vision for a better world – qualities that Nelle Tobias demonstrated in her life and in her legacy. Doug and Ann Christensen were selected as the first recipients in May 2007. Fund for Idaho is accepting nominations for potential award recipients until May 16, 2008.

Nomination criteria for this award include:

- Contributions of financial resources as well as significant time
- Living a life reflective of the values she or he supports
- Dedication to making the world a better place, without regard for personal recognition

This award is to be given to an individual who has contributed time and money, as exemplified by Nelle Tobias, in furthering the vision of a just, compassionate and environmentally healthy Idaho that is respectful of its history and its peoples.

Requirements for Nomination:

- Completed nomination form (attached) including answers to narrative questions (no more than 3 pages typed)
- Two (2) letters of support for the nomination from individuals who are familiar with the nominee's philanthropic activities and worldview.

Guidelines for Nomination:

- Check with your nominee to make sure they are willing to be nominated before submitting their name.
- Answer all questions clearly and concisely to help the award committee in their deliberations.
- Nomination deadline is May 16, 2008
